The Ela Bears Repeated as Northwest Suburban Conference Champions

CHAMPIONS

AGAIN

Foes Fear Ela Prep Nine

Opens Defense Of Title May 2

BY BOB RUSSELL

Northwest Conference rivals fear that Ela Township High School will "bear" down in baseball about the time the league race begins May 2.

The defending champions from Lake Zurich haven't won a non-conference game yet, but everyone has an idea of what to expect when their veterans get into the swing again.

"We have quite a few boys back, but so does nearly every other team," points out Mel Elde, Ela's baseball boss.

ELA FAVORED IN BASEBALL RACE

Ela of Lake Zurich, with strong pitching, looms as the early favorite in the 1950 Northwest High school conference baseball race which opens on Tuesday, May 2.

PROUTY, RADKE SHINE FOR ELA

Ela of Lake Zurich scored one of its most important victories of the Northwest conference baseball season yesterday, when the Bears toppled Barrington, 4 to 2, behind the three-hit pitching of Eddie Prouty, who whiffed 12 batters and walked five.

Prouty's opponent was Ken Shuett, who fanned seven and passed one.

Sharing the limelight with Prouty was George Radke, the boy who broke up a 2-2 tie in the sixth inning with a rousing double that scored two runs and gave Ela the decision. Jerry Wendt and Terry Turner of the Bears each got two hits, while Lake Zurich Preps Defeat Warren Of Gurnee, 8-5; Tigers Topple Zion-Benton In 4-1 Battle.

The Ela Bears of Lake Zurich and the Crystal Lake Tigers emerged victorious in the semi-finals of the state district prep baseball tournament at Crystal Lake yesterday afternoon and are scheduled to face each other in the championship battle at Crystal Lake tomorrow at 4:30 p.m.

The Bears reached the championship bracket by virtue of an 8-5 victory over the Warren Blue Devils, while Crystal Lake toppled

THE BEARS have most of their strength "down the middle." Mike Rizzo, the catcher, lettered last year. Wendt, Second Baseman Lou Geary and Center Fielder Jerry Centoni were all regulars.

Two juniors handle the other infield duties, Sam Martorano at first and Terry Turner at third. Augie Meyer, a junior, and George Radke, a sophomore, have looked good in left field.

Ela has good depth, with freshman Ray Douglas as the No. 2 catcher, junior John Connelly to back up Martorano at first, and sophomore Chuck Wesner available for second or third.

Ela High Has Strong Ball Team

Little Ela Township High School of Lake Zurich has big ambitions on the diamond. Last year, Coach Mel Elde's stalwarts slugged their way to 13 victories in 15 starts, capturing the Northwest Conference title.

With seven lettermen back from that powerhouse unit, Ela, a tiny school with 166 students, hopes to do even better this season.

Heading the veterans are two big righthanded pitchers, George Schwarz and Eddie Prouty. Prouty wasn't beaten in six starts and led the team in hitting with .475.

Schwarz had a 6-1 mound record. Other holdovers are Mike Rizzo, scrappy catcher; Lou Geary, third base; Jerry Wendt, shortstop; Jerry Centoni, center field, and August Weber, infielder.

Almost every player in the Ela lineup swings a wicked bat. Wendt had .420; Geary .333 and the others were not far behind. Right now, only one thing worries Coach Elde and his charges—the weather.

Ed Prouty Whiffs 13 As Ela Shares Conference Crown

Pitcher Eddie Prouty struck out 13 batters and got three hits for four times as bat to lead Ela to an 8 to 5 triumph over Northbrook this week and gain a tie with Barrington for the Northwest conference baseball championship.

The conquest at Northbrook was Ela's sixth in seven league games. Northbrook finished third in the league with a 4 and 2 record. Score:

Ela.....420 001 0-8 7 0
Northbrook.....020 030 0-3 7 5
Barrington.....010 010 0-3 7 5

So long, It's been good to know ya!

The Senior Class of 'fifty-one
Is surely the greatest e'er to come.
Of the pool of knowledge we have tasted
We don't believe our times been wasted.
Not only honors and praises have we won,
But statistics show we chew the most gum.
Our class enrollment don't reach the sky,
But as far as brains go, we really rate high.
We don't like to brag, (isn't it a shame!)--
But our float won first place at the homecoming game.

Our prom and snowball were a huge success,
And our plays were rated as the best.
In athletics, dramatics and Music,
We have more than stood our ground.
Here we showed good sportsmanship too.
Isn't it fun to have Seniors around????
Everybody loves the Senior Class
The shining example to all
They leave advice to those that follow--
"Be first to carry the ball."

Class Will

ARTICLE I

We, the graduating class of Ela-Vernon High School, being of sound mind and body do ordain and establish the following, as our last will and testament.

SECTION I. To our principal of Ela-Vernon High School, Mr. Herbert L. Wesner, we leave our deepest appreciation for a job well done. Mr. Wesner, thoroughly familiar with the erring ways of his students, has successfully guided us through the first maize toward adulthood's high estate.

SECTION II. To the rest of the faculty we leave our "thanks" for their kindness and patience.

SECTION III. To the "left-over" and "oncoming" seniors we give this advice; forget your studies, have a good time, and spoil your chances of wearing a cap and gown.

SECTION IV. To next year's juniors we leave our ability to put on a truly fine prom, and to the underclassmen, we leave our foolish blunders and mistakes.

ARTICLE II

Lorraine Altmann leaves her ability to get along with everyone to Hal S. in hopes that he, too, will make many friends.

Bruce Ballard leaves his night job to Greg P. in hopes he will have something to keep him busy at night.

Joann Benson leaves her ability to get along with Miss Renigar to Joan N. so that the class will always agree with Miss Renigar.

Bill Busch leaves his hobby, "women," to Chuck W., so that the girls will always have someone "to look up to."

Jerry Centoni wills his ability to play football to Jerry S. in hopes that E. V. H. S. will always have a star fullback.

John Connelly leaves his boisterous ways to George B. In hopes that George will be able to tell people the interesting things that happened to him.

Harold Dahm leaves his trips to the "Loop" to George R., so that he, too, can see the sights.

Shirley Dahm leaves her parties to Thelma G., in hopes that next year's seniors will have some place to go for a good time.

Lois Deschauer leaves her camera to Lorraine Raupp so that next year's Elyte will have good snap shots.

Guy Farman leaves his blonde hair to Patty G., so that she won't have to use the bottle anymore.

Beverly Fredericksen wills her ability of sewing to Merr D., so that she, too, will always be busy "sewing on something."

Georg Geiger leaves his "sarcasm" to anybody that wants it.

Donna Halvorsen leaves her job of cheering to Dolores H., so that E.V.H.S. will always have a good cheerleader.

Ruth Iverson leaves her jokes to Edith Langenbach so that the Senior class will always be laughing about something.

Vivian Johnson leaves her quietness to Louise B. so that the Senior class will always be quiet.

Elwood Knigge leaves his "pigs" to Cliff R. so that there always will be someone to win ribbons at the fair.

Jean Ladd leaves her long shots to the team so that they will be able to make a lot of points.

Joan Lawrence leaves her honor roll standing to Roger F., Pete A., and Danny S. in hopes that they will someday be on the honor roll.

Lyle Lohmann leaves his "soda-jerkin" to Henry Butt, so that he, too, can make money after school.

Don Maxwell wills his ability of doing nothing in Study Hall to Betty B. so that the study hall teacher won't have anything to do.

Jim McBurney leaves his "A" in American History to David M. so that the teacher will have something to be proud of.

August Meyer leaves his car to his little sister so that she, too, can get to school just on time.

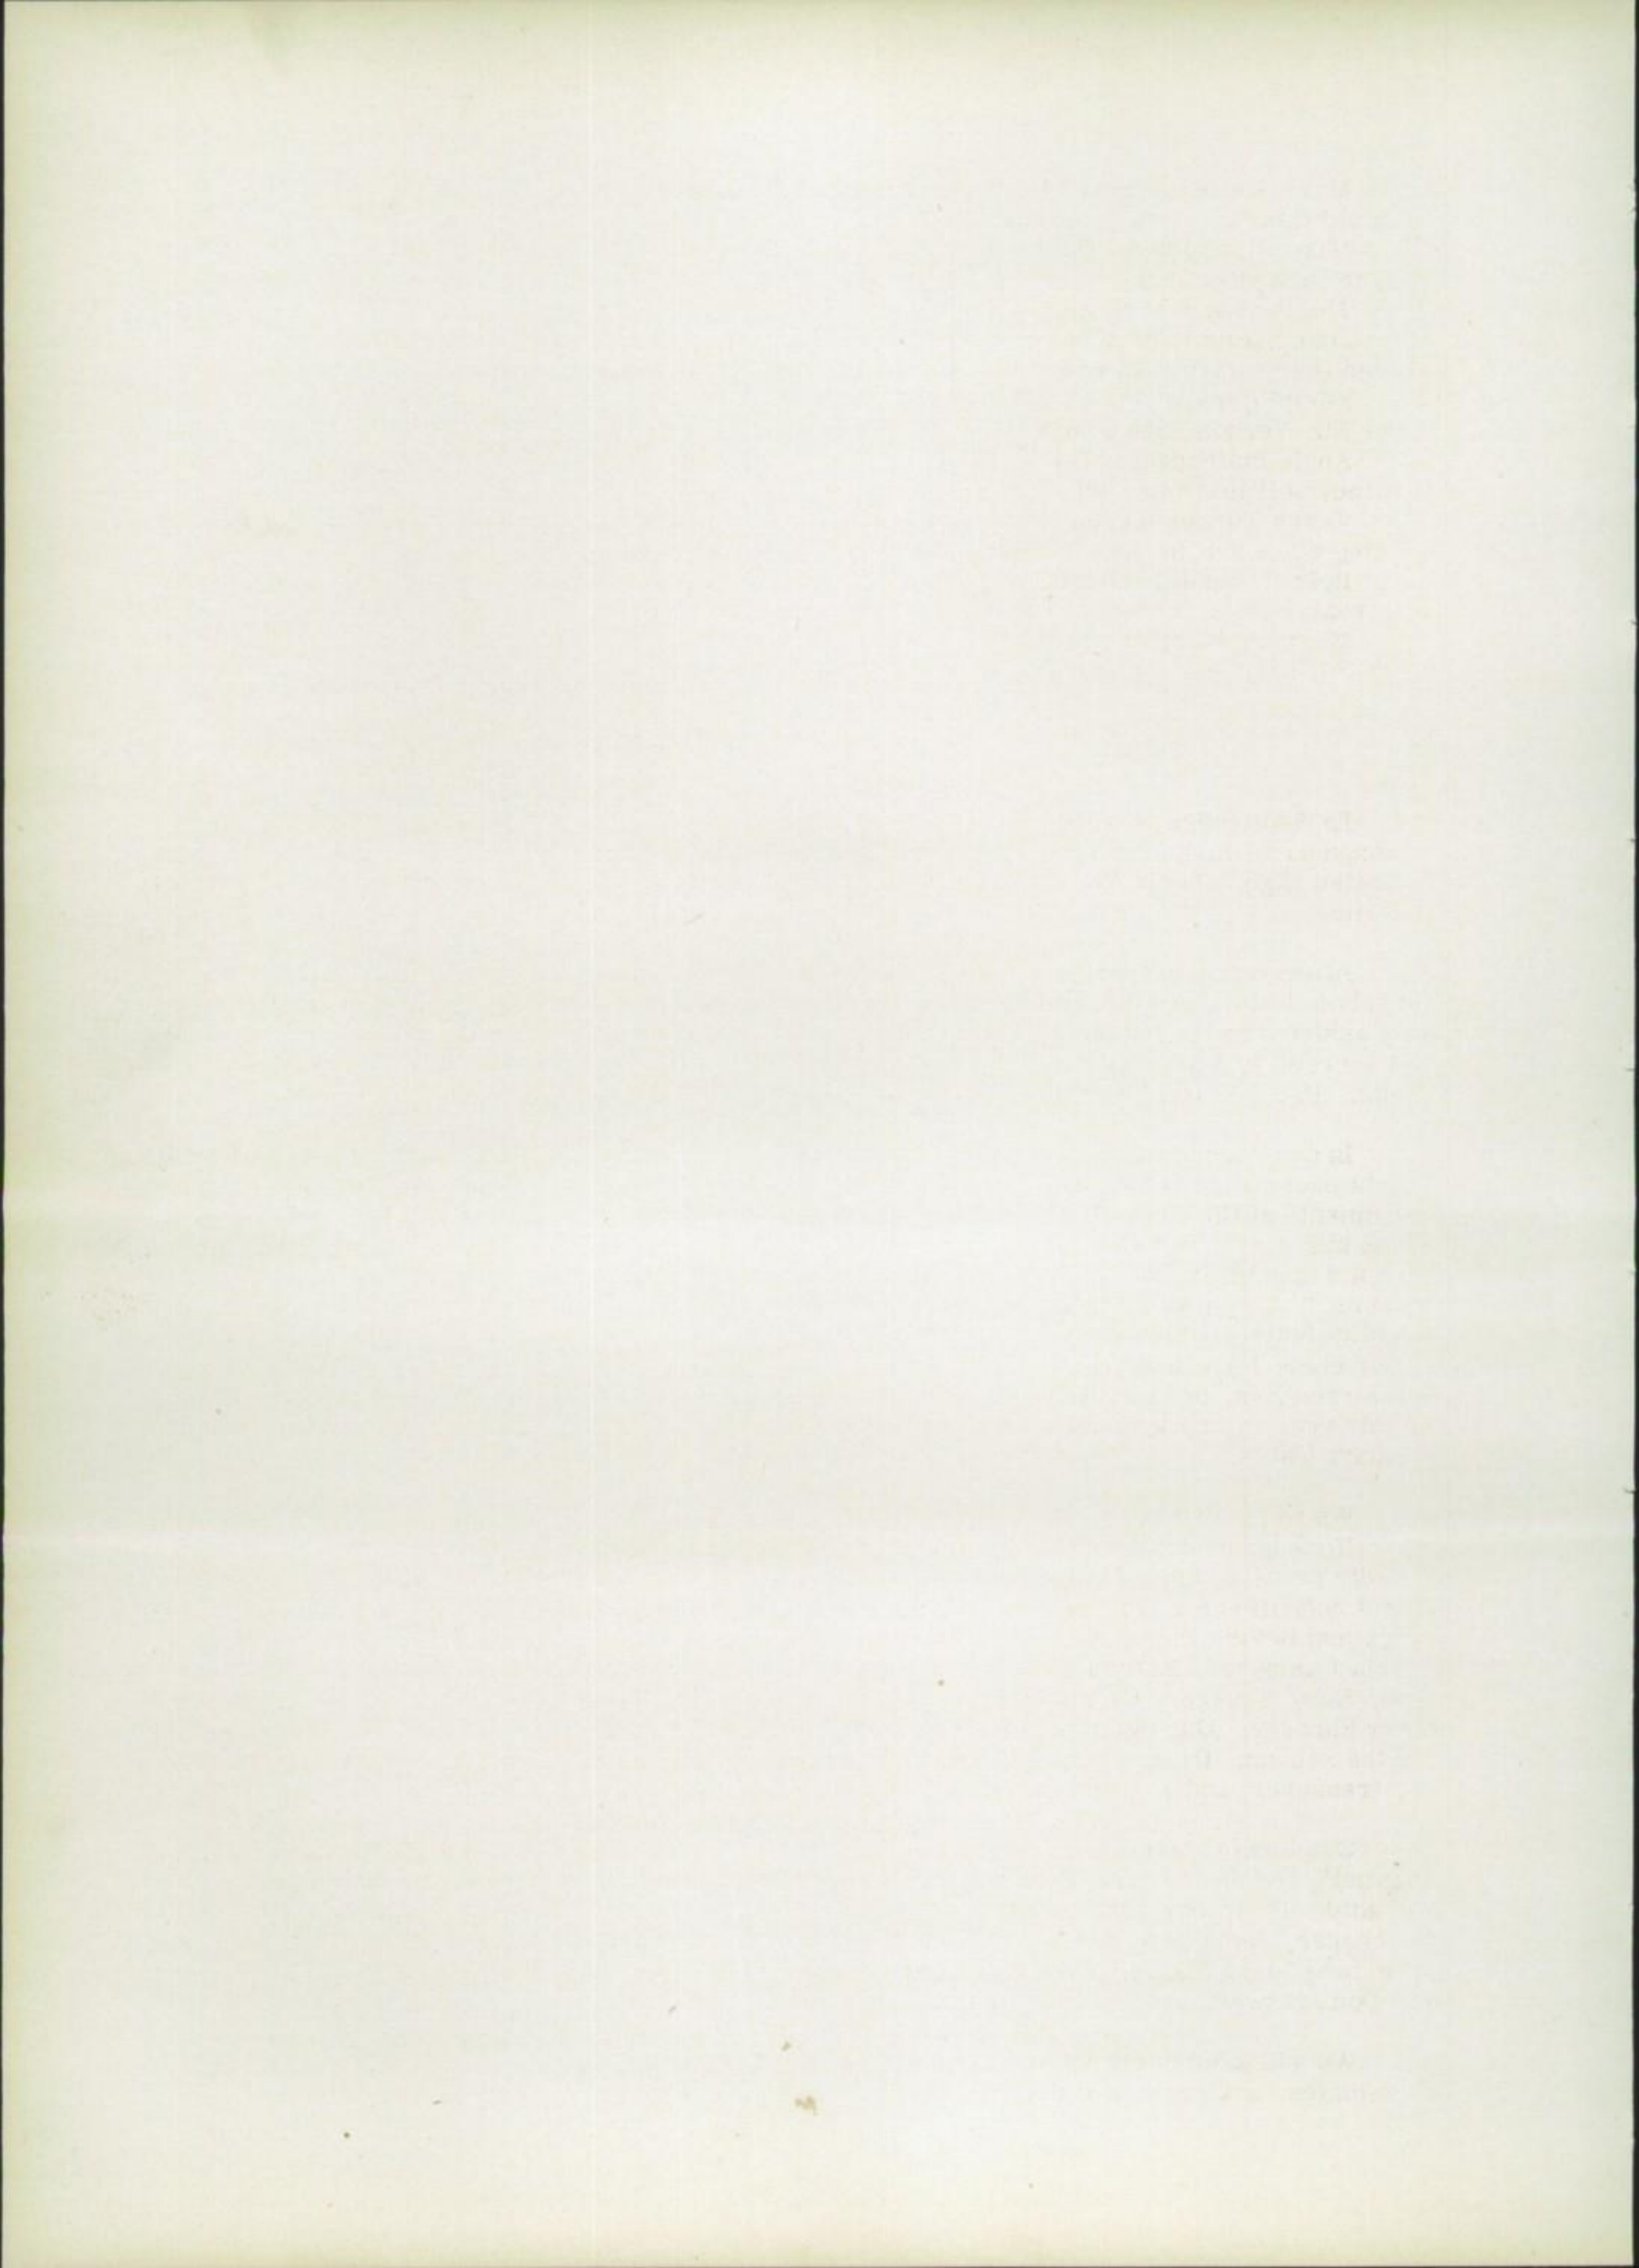

Sam Martorano leaves his dancing talent to Bob F. so that there will be some boy to dance with the girls at noon.

Paul Mure leaves the job of setting up the movie projector to anybody who wants to get out of some class.

Mary Ellen Murphy leaves her talent at the piano to June R. so that Ela-Vernon will always have a star pianist.

Betty Nonnemacher leaves her "inside information" on Palatine to Dorothy N. so that the girls will have someone to tell them the news.

Joan Norling leaves her place in the chorus line to Ann C. so that she, too, will have something to be teased about.

Mary Ann Pohlmann leaves the "alumni" to Lee Severance so that she, too, will have a "gay old time".

Mike Rizzo leaves the Freshman girls to Robert P. so that the freshmen will have somebody to look after them.

Jim Seavey leaves his love for any girl to anybody who loves to chase women.

Joan Sikula leaves her trick riding to Margot H. so that she, too, will be able to travel around the country with rodeos.

Sijer Sijerson leaves the Chicago girls to Frank C. so that they will continue to know about Ela-Vernon High School.

Angie Stathopoulos leaves her brilliant voice to the soprano section of chorus in hopes that they will learn to sing also.

Terry Turner leaves his boy scout medals, to Tom R. so that there always will be a high ranking boy scout in the school.

Robert Wendt leaves his singing to Gil C. so that the shower room won't be quite so dull next year.

Mariann Worrall leaves her ability to get along with sailors to Donna K. so the U. S. Navy will have somebody from Ela-Vernon High School.

Class History

In September of 1947, thirty-four "freshies," confused and bewildered by the strange atmosphere of high school, entered the halls of Ela Township known now as Ela-Vernon consolidated High School. We, like our school, have progressed and increased in number during this time.

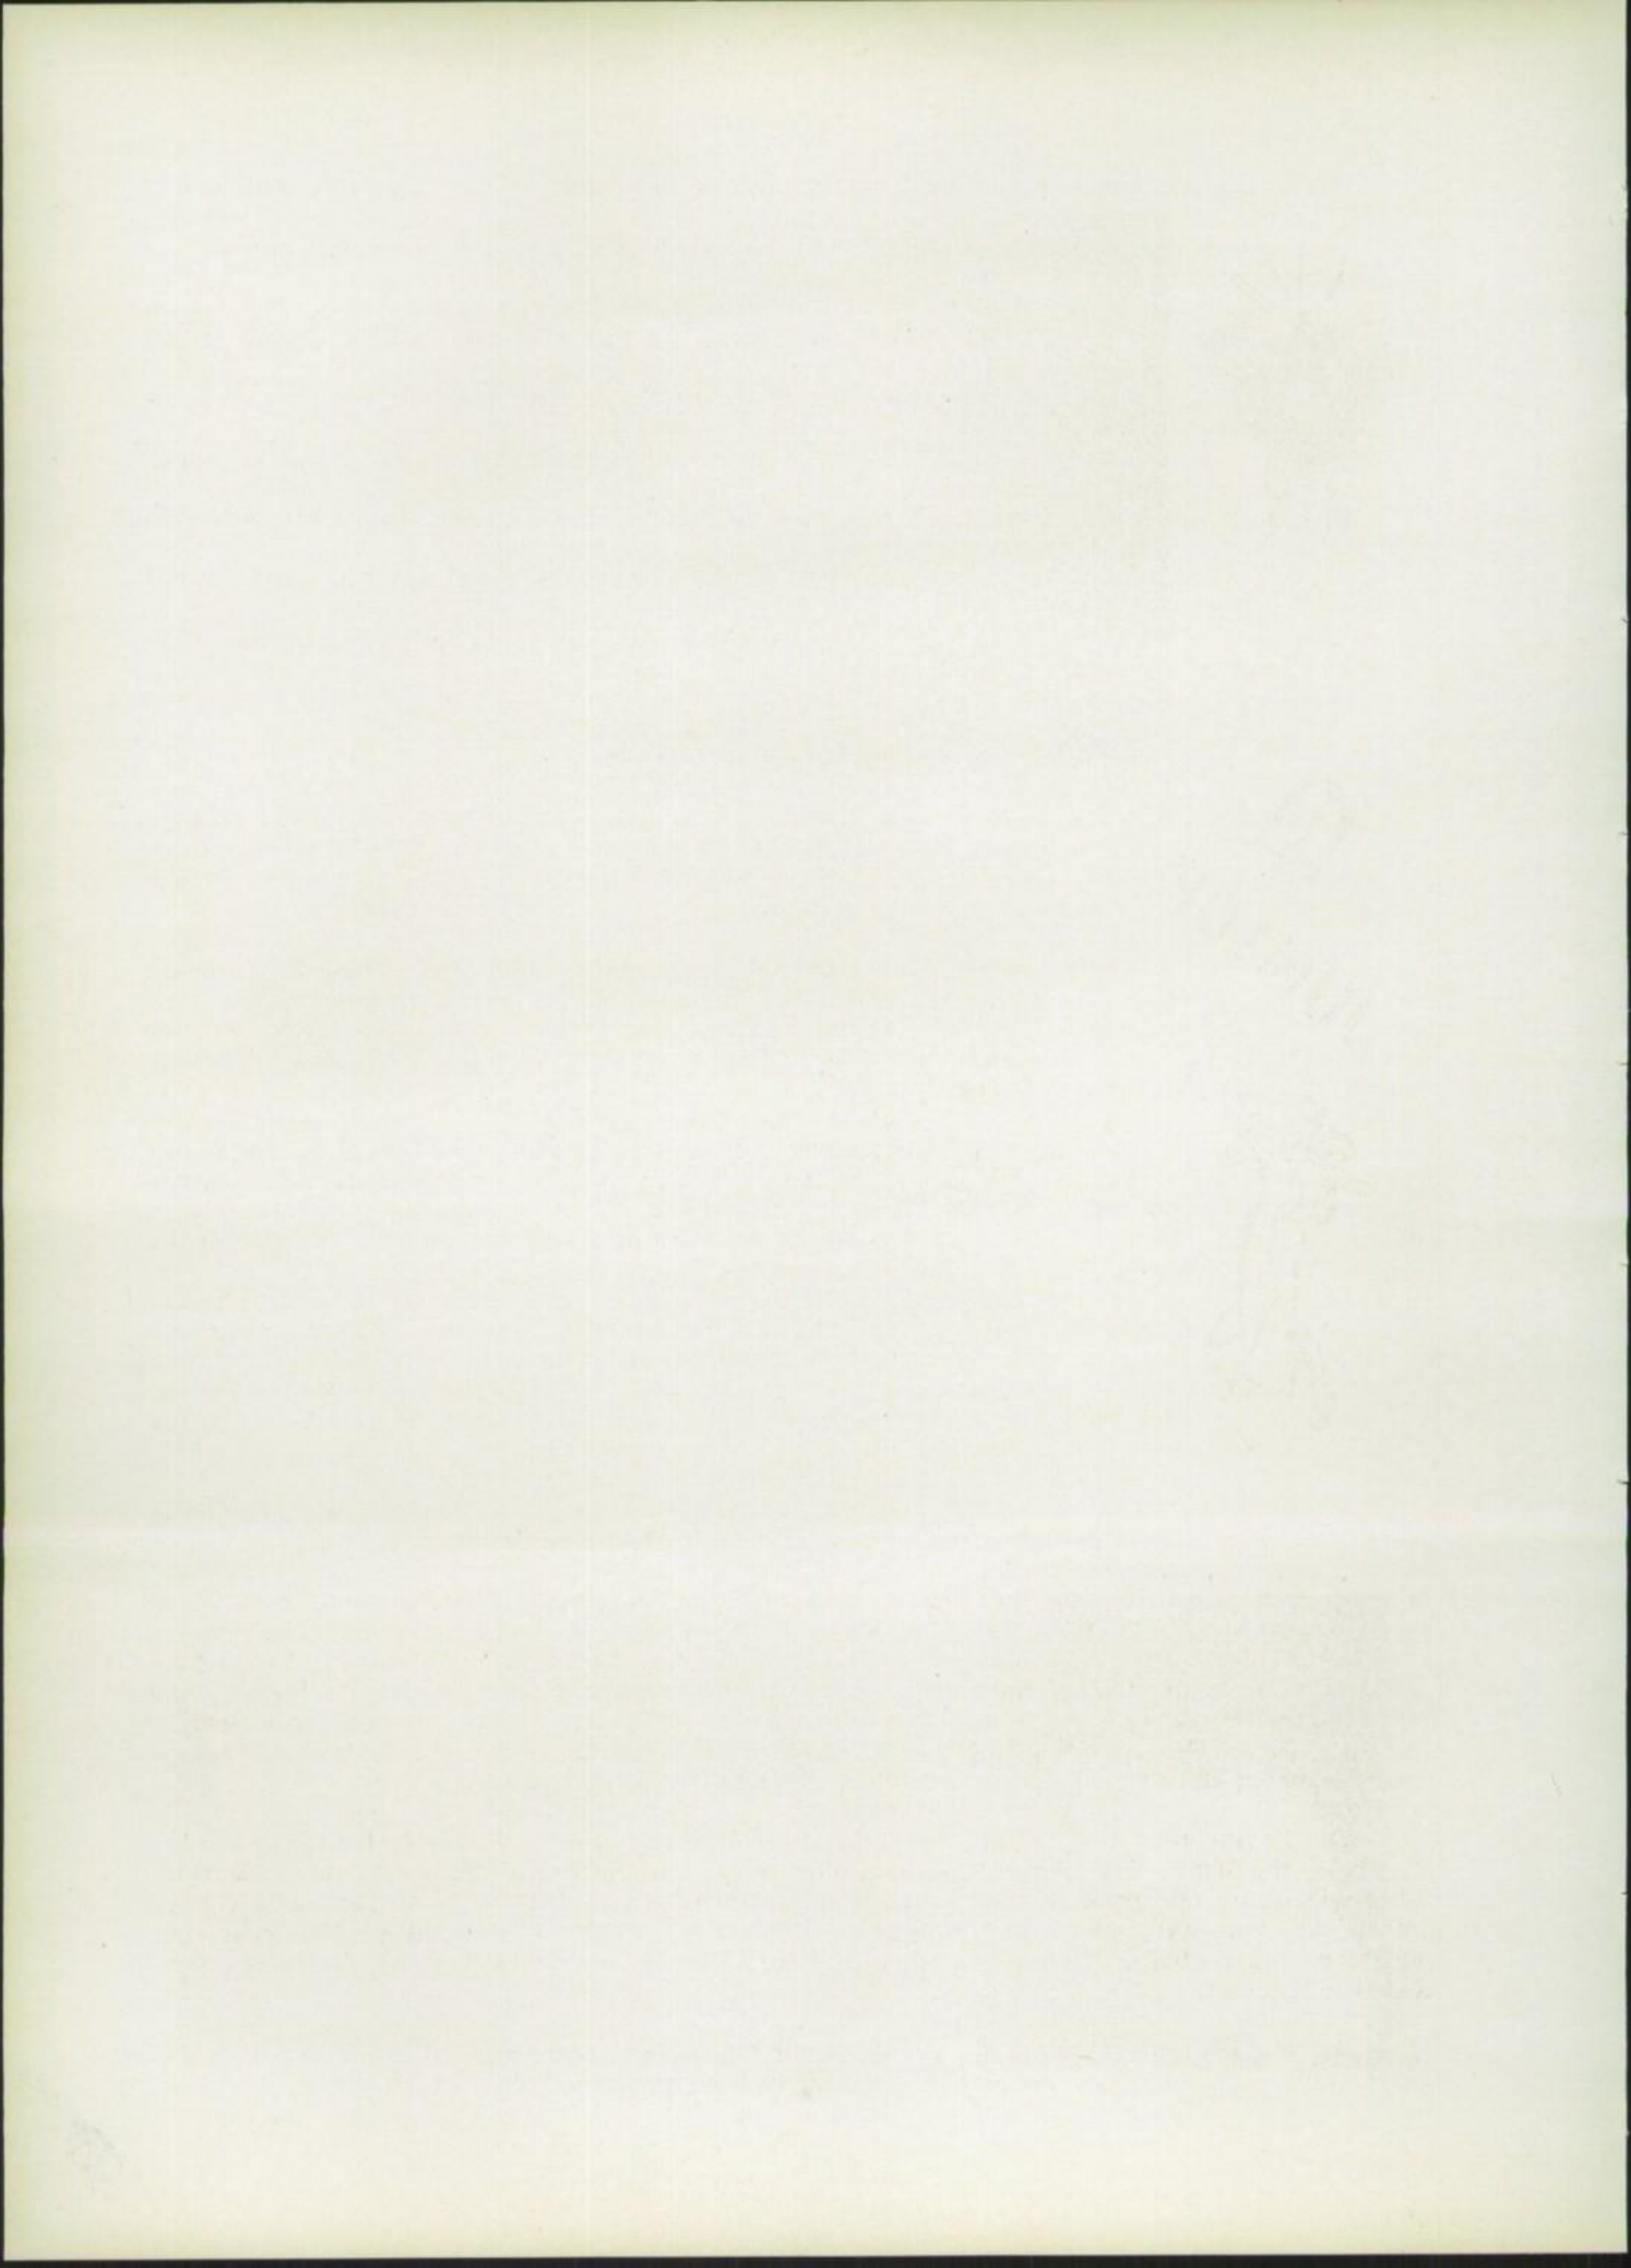

After being properly initiated and received by the student body, we proceeded to adapt ourselves to this new life ahead of us. We elected August Meyer as our president, who was ably assisted in his leadership by vice-president, Sam Martorano; Treasurer, Jerry Centoni; and Secretary, Lorraine Altmann. During this, Donald Wright and Patricia Folsom joined our ranks. Patricia left later this same year.

In our second year, we found life easier, as we were proud sophomores and had a full year's experience behind us. Our activities increased and soon we found ourselves selling refreshments at the basketball games. The entire school had a magazine subscription sale in which our class was the "winner". During the year we also sold stationery. In one of the school assemblies, our class presented two one-act plays, "Even Exchange" and "A Day For Truants." To guide us in all our school activities we chose Sam Martorano as president, Angeline Stathopoulos as secretary and Harold Dahm as treasurer. We were pleased to welcome to our class Joan Becker, Jerry Sheerin, Ken Dallmeyer, Jim Seavey, Betty Hobbs, and Joan Schwarzenhorn, but lost Betty Hobbs and Joan Schwarzenhorn later in the year. Others leaving us this year were Raymond Clark, Rosemary Harvey, Raymond Brefeld, Robert Georgia and Leonard Oates.

We were also very busy during the next, our Junior year. As money-making projects, we raffled off a blanket, radio, and iron; continued to sell refreshments at the games, and proudly presented our Junior Class Play, "Mother Is A Freshman". Also near the top of our list of activities for the year was the Junior Prom. To our great joy, we received our class rings just before Christmas. This year we gained Joan Norling, Bruce Ballard, Joann Benson, Gloria Lamperes, Betty Joan Lawrence, and Sijer Sijerson, but lost Joan Becker, Lloyd Hase-man, Ruby Krueger, Gloria Lamperes, Ken Dallmeyer, Robert Sinclair, Donald Wright, and Merr Shroyer. Our class president was Harold Dahm for the first semester and Jerry Centoni for the second. Other class officers were Angeline Stathopoulos, vice-president; Gussie Meyer, treasurer; and Kenneth Dallmeyer as secretary.

Our Senior year has probably been the most eventful with the Homecoming Dance, the Snowball, the Senior trip, Senior Day, our class play, "Seventeenth Summer," and graduation. To guide us on our path was Guy Farman, President; Terry Turner, Vice-President; Lois Deschauer, Secretary; and Woody Knigge as Treasurer. Jerry Sheerin left us this year, but we gained Joann Sikula, Mary Ellen Murphy, Georg Geiger, Marianne Worrall, Jim McBurney, and Don Maxwell.

We will always remember the events of our high school years and will miss our teachers, classmates, advisors, and any others who gave us a boost up the ladder of education.
